ARTICLE 7: SHIPMENT AND DELIVERY OF GOODS
7.1. All Goods and spare parts shall be shipped as per PO instruction. Shipment costs, delivery to Buyer's warehouse and ... will be as per PO description. If PO is silent in this regard, they should be based on defined delivery term (Incoterms 2020). 7.2. Shipment insurance (issued by an Iranian insurance company) costs shall be based on PO description or if the PO is silent, it should be based on defined delivery term (Incoterms 2020). 7.3. If the seller is obliged to perform the marking, packing, preservation and shipment of the Materials, they shall be performed in a manner adequate to withstand transportation to the Site in accordance with the requirements contained in "PO". 7.4. If the carriage of Goods is the Seller's responsibility, Seller shall take care to insure that it shall comply with all Applicable Laws applicable to the carriage of dangerous goods, especially those relating to marking, packing and transportation. 7.5. If Seller fails to make deliveries on due time or perform the works at the due time, any or all damages incurred to Buyer and any special premium transportation or other costs required to complete the specified delivery schedule shall be charged at the expense of Seller. 7.6. Delivery terms of the PO shall be interpreted in accordance with International Rules for the Interpretation of Trade Terms 2020 and as supplemented ("Incoterms 2020"). 7.7. If the Materials cannot be dispatched at the time when they are due or ready for dispatch in accordance with the PO, after Buyer's written confirmation, Seller shall store the Materials, safeguard them and take all steps to prevent their deterioration during such storage period. Cost of storage will be paid according to the agreed price of both Parties.
ARTICLE 8: TITLE
8.1. Seller warrants the good title to all Materials, free and clear of all liens, claims and encumbrances. The title and risks of Materials shall pass to Buyer in accordance with Incoterms 2020. Said transfer of title shall in no way affect Buyer's rights as set forth in any other provision of the PO. 8.2. Notwithstanding the above sub-article, if Buyer makes progress payments to Seller under this PO, the title to the Materials or any part thereof shall pass to Buyer at the time that Seller identifies the Materials or any part thereof to this PO. The care, custody and control of such Materials or any part thereof remains with Seller until such time as Buyer takes physical possession or otherwise agrees in writing by change order to this PO. 8.3. All drawings, manuals, documents, engineering, computer disks, computer tapes and other data prepared or furnished by Seller in performing the works shall become the property of Buyer at the time of preparation and may be used by Buyer for any purpose whatsoever. 8.4. Any portion of the Materials of which title has passed to Buyer but which remains in the care and custody of Seller shall be clearly identified in a manner acceptable to the Buyer as being the property of Buyer and shall be segregated from Seller's property. 8.5. For the purpose of protecting Buyer's interest in all Materials of which title has passed to Buyer but which remains in the possession of another person, Seller shall take or cause to be taken all steps necessary under the Applicable Laws of the appropriate jurisdiction to protect Buyer's title thereto. Further, Seller shall protect, defend and hold Buyer harmless against any and all claims by other persons with respect thereto.
ARTICLE 9: INSPECTION
9.1. Based on the Buyer's requirements, Seller or Supplier shall arrange for Goods inspection, prior to each shipment (the "inspection prior to the Shipment") and shall coordinate to issue an Inspection Certificate in respect thereof by a reputable inspection firm nominated by the Buyer. 9.2. Seller or Supplier accepts the third party's inspection nominated by the Buyer. Scope of such inspection should be as per inspection scope as mentioned in this Article. 9.3. All Goods Operating Manuals and Drawings have to be in all aspect in compliance with technical specifications of the purchased items. All spare parts shall have the part number label and the part number label shall be according to the related part number mentioned in manual. In case of non-conformity or no engraving the part number on the spare parts, then Buyer reserves the right to claim against Seller/Supplier or Manufacturer through legal proceedings 9.4. Seller shall have sole responsibility for the inspection of, and Seller shall inspect, all materials and/or the works, to ensure that the same shall conform in each and every respect to the requirements of the PO and be in accordance with good design, engineering and fabricating practices. This inspection shall include works in Seller's shop as well as works in its sub-Sellers' shops. Buyer, Company and/or any of their designated inspection personnel shall have the rights to inspect any of the materials, Goods and/or the works whenever deemed necessary for conformance to the PO and for progress of the purchase. However, any inspection or failure thereof by Buyer, Company or aforesaid inspection personnel shall not relieve Seller of its responsibility. 9.5. If not expressly waived by Buyer, the Materials and/or the purchase shall be subject to inspection and test by representative of Buyer, Company and/or any of their designated inspection personnel. Any rejection by any one of them will be final. The application for inspection shall be submitted by Seller to Buyer within the agreed time limit before the date of scheduled inspection and test. If no agreement is made, Seller shall notify Buyer of readiness for inspection at least two (2) weeks in advance of the date inspection is required. After the initial notification, Buyer and Seller will agree on a schedule for further inspections. Seller shall not delay the fabrication or manufacturing pending inspection, unless otherwise approved by Buyer. If inspection or test of the Materials or any part thereof is required by the applicable Laws, Seller shall promptly perform the same pursuant to such applicable Laws at its cost. 9.6. Buyer may conduct or have its representative conduct an unpacking inspection of all Materials at the Site at any time deemed appropriate by Buyer and/or Company. Any inconsistency or discrepancy between the actual Materials and the Materials on the packing list found during the unpacking inspection shall be deemed and considered as shortage, loss or excess in Seller's supply. Seller shall dispatch its personnel or representative to the Site to witness the unpacking inspection at its own expense. If Seller intends to witness the unpacking inspection, it shall notify Buyer thereof prior to shipment of the Materials. If such notice is given by Seller to Buyer, Buyer shall notify Seller of the date on which Buyer intends to conduct such unpacking inspection at least seven (7) days prior to the scheduled date of the unpacking inspection. If any shortage, loss or damage is found at the time of unpacking inspection, Seller shall (at its cost including, but not limited to, export packing, handling and transportation costs to the Site) immediately make all repairs to or replacements of the Materials necessary to restore such shortage, loss or damage. The determination by Buyer as to shortage, loss or damage shall be binding upon Seller. Any excess found at the time of an unpacking inspection shall not be deemed to substitute for the shortage, loss or damage and may be returned to Seller at Seller's cost.
